Agreement: the Agreement between the Seller and the Buyer.

Article 2 - General

- 2.1 The provisions of these General Terms and Conditions apply to each and every offer, order and agreement between the Seller and the Buyer, insofar as any or all of these conditions have not been specifically excluded by the parties in writing;
- 2.2 Furthermore, these General Terms and Conditions apply to all agreements with the Seller, in the course of the performance of which the Seller will have recourse to the services of third parties;
- 2.3 The applicability of general terms and conditions of the Buyer is expressly excluded unless agreed otherwise by the parties in writing;
- 2.4 Where the Seller and the Buyer enter into any future agreements, all such future agreements will be governed by the terms and conditions as detailed herein, irrespective of whether these General Terms and Conditions have been expressly declared applicable;
- 2.5 I Where one or more of the provisions in these General Terms and Conditions are invalid or revoked for any reason whatsoever, or where the Seller has agreed in writing to the applicability of one or more deviating conditions, all other provisions in these General Terms and Conditions will remain in full force and effect;
- 2.6 Where any of the provisions in these General Terms and Conditions contained herein should prove to be invalid for whatever reason, the substance and purport of the provision in question will be construed to mean what was originally intended to the greatest extent possible, such that it can validly be invoked.

Article 3 - Offers/Quotations/Prices

- 3.1 All offers in any form whatsoever are free of any and all obligation, unless expressly stated otherwise in the offer in question;
- 3.2 All details issued in relation to an offer and/or specifications in relation to quantity, size, weight, content, etc., are estimates and only become binding on the Seller when such is expressly confirmed in writing;
- 3.3 A composite quotation will not obligate the Seller to deliver part of the goods as detailed in such offer or quotation for a sum commensurate with the part of the goods in question;
- 3.4 The prices in the agreements apply to all deliveries ex works, are in euro, include loading costs, are exclusive of VAT, government levies, export duties and shipping, freight and packaging costs, unless expressly agreed otherwise;
- 3.5 Any changes made may result in the Seller failing to meet the period of delivery indicated prior to the changes. This may not be invoked to the detriment of the Seller.
- 3.6 Where the Seller is a party to an agreement, the agreement shall first be considered binding where:
 - a) both parties have signed an agreement drafted for the purpose; and/or
 - b) written confirmation of an order placed by the Buyer is issued by the Seller;
 - c) in absence of either of the above, where an ex-works delivery of the goods in question takes place;

- 3.7 Any additional arrangements or changes made between the parties will only become binding where the Seller confirms such in writing. Any and all costs arising out of additions and/or changes to the Agreement will be borne by the Buyer;
- 3.8 Where orders and/or changes in the performance of such orders are made orally or by telephone, the Buyer will bear the risk of the non-execution or inadequate execution of that order. The terms contained in Article 8 apply in full;
- 3.9 Where a natural person enters into an agreement on behalf of or for another natural person, he declares by signing the aforementioned agreement that he is authorised to do so. This person will, in addition to the other natural person, be regarded as being jointly and severally liable for all obligations arising out of the agreement;
- 3.10 Discounts and commissions will not apply unless expressly agreed in writing;
- 3.11 The agreed prices will be based on cost-determining factors applicable at the moment of quotation. The Seller reserves the right to pass on any and all costs to the Buyer arising out of any changes to those cost-determining factors arising after the offer or order confirmation which it cannot reasonably control (such as price increases by suppliers and other developments).

Article 4 - Delivery

- 4.1 Delivery will take place ex works from the Seller's storage facility unless agreed otherwise by the parties in writing;
- 4.2 Unless agreed otherwise in writing – for example, in the Seller's order confirmation – and notwithstanding the provisions in Article 11 of these Terms and Conditions, products are considered to have been validly delivered to the Buyer as from the time these products are ready for shipping or transport at the Seller's storage facility and the Buyer has been notified in writing (ex works, Incoterms 2000);
- 4.3 In the event of delivery ex works to a foreign Buyer, the Buyer is obligated to notify the Seller if the goods are to be transported to a country other than where the Buyer is based. A deviating delivery address can result in a different VAT calculation on the invoice in accordance with tax regulations. The Buyer undertakes to cooperate fully in any and all tax audits where the Seller finds such necessary;
- 4.4 The products are transported at the expense and risk of the Buyer, unless agreed otherwise in writing. The Buyer shall accept the goods the moment the Seller delivers or dispatches them, or collect the goods within 24 hours after receiving notice that the goods are ready to be collected or are made available in accordance with the Agreement. This, unless the parties have agreed that the Seller will store the goods in a warehouse specified by the Seller until the goods are collected. The Buyer is then obligated to pay all warehouse and Total Produce B.V. cold storage costs to the Seller incurred in connection with storage during this period. At this point, the quality and condition risk shall be passed on to the Buyer. The Buyer is expected to inquire about the quality and condition of the goods prior to this storage period. The Buyer itself is allowed, prior to this storage period, to verify the quality and condition of the goods;
- 4.5 The Buyer shall provide the Seller with all documents and information necessary for compliance with customs formalities and other legal formalities prior to delivery of the goods;
- 4.6 If the Buyer refuses to accept the goods, or does not supply the information or instructions required for delivery, the Seller will be entitled to store the goods at the expense and risk of the Buyer;
- 4.7 Should the Buyer not collect the purchased products within the period indicated in Article 4.4, the Seller will be entitled to sell these products to another party. If this is not possible, the Seller will be entitled to destroy the goods. The costs incurred by the Seller because of resale or destruction will be charged to the Buyer;
- 4.8 The Seller is entitled to ship the goods cash-on-delivery (COD);

- 4.9 Any delivery period stated by the Seller serves as an indication. A stated delivery period is never an absolute deadline. The Seller will not be in default by merely exceeding the delivery period. In the event of delays caused by any reason whatsoever, the delivery period will be extended in accordance with the delay period. Failure to meet the delivery period does not give the Buyer the right to claim compensation, suspend its obligations or terminate the Agreement;
- 4.10 Should the Seller need information from the Buyer regarding the performance of the Agreement, the delivery period will commence after the Buyer has provided the Seller with this information;
- 4.11 Call-off orders will be collected by the Buyer within the agreed timeframe. Should this not be the case, the Seller will be entitled to deliver the remaining quantity to the Buyer and charge the Buyer any and all price increases;
- 4.12 The Seller is entitled to deliver the products in part. The Seller is entitled to invoice the partial deliveries separately;
- 4.13 Het recht op levering dat voor koper uit een overeenkomst voortvloeit, is niet overdraagbaar zonder schriftelijke toestemming van de Verkoper.

Article 5 - Shipments and undeliverable items

- 5.1 Shipments cannot be delivered to PO boxes or postcodes. Shipments will be delivered at the recipient's address supplied by the Buyer, but not necessarily delivered to the recipient named by the Buyer;
- 5.2 Shipments addressed to a central delivery address will be delivered at this address. If the recipient refuses to accept the shipment or refuses to pay for the shipment, or if the recipient considers the shipment unacceptable, or if the shipment has been undervalued for customs purposes, or if the recipient cannot reasonably be identified or located, the Seller will deliver the shipment to the Buyer or take back the shipment. Should it be impossible, for whatever reason, to return the shipment, the Seller can freely dispose of the shipment, without being liable in any way vis-à-vis the Buyer or any other person or legal entity, and any proceeds will be used to pay the costs incurred as a result of the supplied services and administrative work performed in that respect. When shipments are undeliverable, the Buyer will remain obligated to pay the price of the goods purchased.

Article 6 - Cash on delivery

- 6.1 Upon delivery, the transporter shall collect the amounts payable delivery from the recipient/Buyer and, if agreed, then transfer these amounts to the Seller. The Seller will be entitled to deduct the costs of transport from the payment received;
- 6.2 The recipient/Buyer, who is aware upon delivery that the shipment is payable upon delivery, shall pay the amount owed to the Seller to the transporter;
- 6.3 Should the recipient/Buyer refuse to accept the shipment, which is offered for cash on delivery, or refuse to pay the amount due, then the transporter shall return the shipment and deliver it to the Seller at the expense of the Buyer, unless the Seller decides otherwise.

Artikel 7 - Export

- 7.1 The Buyer guarantees that, if an import certificate or permit is required for importing the shipment in the country of destination, such an import certificate or permit has been obtained or will be obtained prior to dispatch.

Article 8 - Investigation, complaints

- 8.1 Upon delivery, but no later than 24 hours after delivery, the Buyer shall inspect the shipment. The Buyer shall verify whether the quantity and quality of the shipment are in accordance with the Agreement;
- 8.2 Any samples shown to the Buyer will be assumed to have been shown as an indication and the shipment will not necessarily need to comply with that sample, unless expressly agreed otherwise. Any deviation in quality, colour, weight and size of 0% to 5% will be tolerated by the Buyer. The toleration of decay of the shipment is 3%, in excess of which complaints may be filed. The quality of the goods delivered by the Seller will be category 2 as a minimum, in accordance with EU law, and inspected in the Netherlands;
- 8.3 Any visible deficiencies will be reported to the Seller in writing, stating reasons, within 24 hours of delivery. The complaint will describe the deficiencies in as much detail as possible to enable the Seller to react in an adequate manner;
- 8.4 If a complaint is not filed in good time pursuant to Article 8.3, the Buyer will remain obligated to accept and pay for the goods purchased. Should the Buyer wish to return any defective goods, then this will be done with the prior written permission from the Seller at the expense of the Buyer in the original packaging and in a way indicated by the Seller;
- 8.5 The Buyer shall allow the Seller, at first request, to inspect the goods sold to verify the accuracy of the complaint;
- 8.6 Should a complaint be justified, in part in view of the above provisions, the Seller shall replace the delivered goods, unless this has by then become demonstrably meaningless for the Buyer. The latter must be indicated by the Buyer in writing. However, the Seller is at all times only liable to the extent provided for under 'Liability';
- 8.7 Complaints concerning a specific shipment do not affect previous or future shipments.

Article 9 - Payment

- 9.1 Payment will take place in cash on delivery, or within 30 days of the date of invoice in a manner to be indicated by the Seller in the currency of the agreed prices. Deviations in payment terms are only valid when agreed in writing. Complaints about the sum of the invoices do not suspend the payment obligation;
- 9.2 The Seller is entitled to request payment in advance;
- 9.3 The Buyer hereby waives its rights to set off amounts or to suspend its obligations;
- 9.4 Should the Buyer default on its payments within the agreed term, the Buyer will be in default ipso jure. The Buyer will then owe interest of 2% per month on the invoice amount, or part thereof, unless the statutory interest rate or statutory commercial interest rate is higher, in which case the higher rate will apply. The interest on the amounts due and payable will be calculated from the date the Buyer is in default until the date of full payment. The Seller will then be entitled to demand the immediate payment of all outstanding invoices and suspend any further deliveries until the invoice has been paid in full or adequate security has been provided;
- 9.5 In the event of liquidation, bankruptcy or bankruptcy application, admission of the Buyer to statutory debt rescheduling pursuant to the Dutch Natural Persons Debt Rescheduling Act, attachment or (temporary) suspension of payments of the Buyer, the Seller's claims against the Buyer will be immediately due and payable;
- 9.6 Payments will first be used to cover the costs, then the incurred interest, and lastly the principal and the accrued interest.

Article 10 - Collection costs

- 10.1 In the event the Buyer is in default or fails to meet its obligations in good time, all reasonable costs to obtain payment out of court will be borne by the Buyer. The collection costs will be calculated in accordance with the collection rates as recommended by the Netherlands Bar Association in collection matters, with a minimum of € 350;
- 10.2 If the Seller has incurred higher costs that were reasonably necessary, these costs will also be eligible for compensation. Any reasonable judicial and enforcement costs will also be charged to the Buyer.

Article 11 - Retention of title

- 11.1 All goods delivered and yet to be delivered will remain the exclusive property of the Seller until all the claims the Seller has or will have against the Buyer, including in any event the claims referred to in Book 3, Article 92 (2) of the Dutch Civil Code, have been paid in full.
- 11.2 As long as the ownership of the goods has not been transferred to the Buyer, the Buyer may not pledge the goods or grant any other rights in respect of the goods to third parties, unless in the ordinary conduct of its business. Upon the Seller's first request, the Buyer will undertake to collaborate in the creation of a right of pledge on the claims that the Buyer obtains or will obtain pursuant to the subsequent delivery of the goods to its buyers.
- 11.3 The Buyer shall keep the goods delivered under retention of title with due care and recognisable as the property of the Seller.
- 11.4 The Seller is entitled to recover the goods delivered under retention of title and still located at the Buyer if the Buyer defaults on its payment obligations or is experiencing payment difficulties or may run into payment difficulties.
